The Democrats claim that Parker will be elected. The Republicans are confident that it is all Roosevelt's way. Darn Roosevelt.

It is now hinted that the Baltic fleet was firing by mistake on its own torpedo boats when the Hull fishermen got hit. Nobody would be surprised.

Senator Fairbanks was in a railroad collision the other day. Roosevelt, it will be remembered, was also in an collision early in the campaign, who said omens.

The 136 State banks in South Carolina have $20,000,000 in savings on deposit. The "Prostrate State" wouldn't know itself if it met its old self in the road.

Hallowee'n celebrations in the North have been nearly as fatal as Fourth of July celebrations and Thanksgiving Day. Scores of people were killed in various ways while out on their pranks.

Governor Chas. B. Aycock, of North Carolina, and Senator Isador Rayner, of Maryland, will speak at Hagerstown, Md., to-night. The eloquent Aycock and the able Marylander will make a strong team.

A new witness for Nan Patterson has turned up in New York. He is a man 78 years of age and he states that he saw Young shoot himself when he was in the cab with the actress. Just as we expected.

Uncle Henry G. Davis took a little rest and started out again yesterday in his private car, accompanied by a number of eminent spellbinders. They expect to speak in every portion of his State between now and Monday. You can't down a workingman.

At Ogden, Utah, on Monday, Ernest E. Betram was married, separated from his wife on Tuesday, and took poison and died Tuesday night. A dispatch says he left her an insurance policy and a letter forgiving her. He also left the widow the bag to hold.

At New Haven a Filipino student who has been in this country long enough to vote, was not allowed to register. Even one of our "subjects" hasn't got the privilege any foreigner has. It can be wagered that the Filipino would have voted the Democratic ticket if he had been allowed to register.

Judge Parker is a man who is accustomed to weigh evidence and then make up his judgment. With all the facts before him he boldly charges in his speeches that Cortelyou as a collector of money from the trusts is a national scandal, and furthermore that the trusts have subscribed money to elect Roosevelt. It is up to the American people to affirm Parker's judgment, as the facts have been proven.

HORSE SALE A NOVELTY.

Wilmington yesterday enjoyed the novelty of a public auction sale of horses. Such occasions are frequent in localities more largely devoted to agriculture, but in Wilmington they are comparatively new and a large part of the down-town population turned out to see what was "doing" when the funeral notes of the auctioneer's voice were heard up in the direction of the old Schloss stables on Princess street, about 11 o'clock.

The sale was by McCampbell Bros., of Knoxville, Tenn., and the horses were of Texas pony type, though there were some very good animals in the lot. They brought all the way from $30 to $60 or "for the high dollar," as the auctioneer would have it. Few, if any of them, had ever known a bridle or halter before and the fun came in the afternoon when the purchasers came for their mounts. Once away from the drove the ponies would charge and kick, fall down and otherwise disport themselves to the disgust of the man at the other end of the halter but to the intense delight of a thousand small boys, who lined the fences and perched upon every place of vantage, where the possibility of danger was remote. One young man, less careful than his fellows, was kicked on the arm by one of the ponies and was very seriously injured.

The most ludicrous incident of the sale was the purchase of a bucking broncho by a Syrian. The dark featured son of the Orient led his steed out of the lot, but once in the street the pony would respond to no amount of coaxing to follow the owner. One of the stable men was appealed to. He came out, gave the animal a vigorous kick in the short ribs and a yellow streak was seen to project down the street to Fourth and thence down Fourth to Market. At the hill by St. James' church, down the slick pavement, reliable men say it would have taken two men and a boy to have seen the combination pass. The horse—and incidentally the Syrian—took up at the foot of the street near the river. The Syrian glared at the pony and the pony glared at the Syrian. "Got dash ye, don't you stand still no once," said the Syrian. A vigorous jerk and another spurt up the street, the Syrian dangling at the end of the rope, was the negative the pony dished out in reply.

ENLARGE AND IMPROVE IT.

Plant Will be Modernized and Made One of Most Extensive in State—Deal Consummated Yesterday—The Messrs. Chadbourn Remain.

A deal of much importance to the greater industrial development of Wilmington and this entire section was consummated here yesterday afternoon. Reference is made to the purchase of the valuable mill and other property of the Chadbourn Lumber Company, on Nutt street, near the Carolina Central depot, by the Waccamaw Land and Lumber Company, the North Carolina corporation of Michigan capitalists and lumbermen who recently purchased the famous Green Swamp lands, embracing 171,120 acres of virgin timber in Brunswick, Columbus and Bladen counties, a note of which was made at some length in these columns at the time. The deal was consummated for the Waccamaw people by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, their attorney, who does not make public the consideration of the sale.

Close upon the heels of the announcement of the location here, comes the further authentic information from the purchasers that the mill will be very greatly enlarged and modernized. Band saws, re-saws and gang edges will be installed as early as possible, placing the mill in the first rank of institutions of its kind in the South. The capacity of the present mill will be doubled, tripled or, perhaps, in time quadrupled. The company, which has a capital beyond the million mark, has an immense body of timber to cut and will probably from time to time enlarge its holdings, the necessity for which, however, with its present stumpage, appears remote.

The Chadbourn plant is most eligibly located, having a long river wharfage at which ocean-going ships of large tonnage may rest at easy anchorage. Its yards are entered by tracks of both the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line, making shipment by rail or water very convenient. In short, the property is among the best in the city for the purposes for which it was purchased.

The Messrs. Chadbourn, who are among the pioneers in the lumber industry in this section, will remain with the company, and will continue their attention to the large domestic and foreign trade of the company. They know the trade from alpha to omega and that they are to continue with the new owners is a cause of congratulation for the new enterprise.

Mr. Frank H. Wheeler, president of the company; Mr. E. H. Stillman, secretary, and Mr. J. E. Clark, of Detroit, one of the largest capitalists interested in the company, have been in Wilmington some time arranging the deal for the Chadbourn mill, but at the request of both parties to the trade, no mention of the pending transaction was made until the deal was actually consummated. The transfer took place yesterday, effective from last Tuesday, Nov. 1st. All of the gentlemen mentioned and Mr. C. E. Clark, treasurer of the company, will make their home in Wilmington; in fact, Mr. Stillman, the secretary, has already brought his family to the city and they are occupying the Pennington residence, on Market street. The new owners of the property will find a warm welcome here and their enterprise will receive every encouragement. Mr. J. E. Clark is one of the wealthiest and most successful lumber men in the country. He will probably be the general manager of the plant here. The improvement of the plant will begin at once and the mill will probably be working on the enlarged scale by Dec. 1st.

The purchase of the Green Swamp land by the Waccamaw Company a couple of months ago was perhaps the most gigantic land and timber deal ever consummated in the State. The whole transaction, which conveys 171,120 acres of land, aggregates the sum of $357,000.00.

Some of the finest pine, cypress, poplar, oak, and other grades of timber in all the South are to be found in this swamp, which is almost untouched. It has been known that in the near future these timber lands were going to be opened up, but not until lately did the matter come to a definite beginning. The Green Swamp lands will at once be developed; rail tram roads will likely be extended through sections of it and the operation of the logging camps will be of great benefit to the country in all that section. The camp at Wilmington will increase the city's maritime interests by fully 25 per cent., and upon the whole the coming of these Michigan capitalists to the State will be of untold benefit. Mr. J. J. Wolfenden, of Newbern, and his attorney, Mr. W. W. Clark, of Newbern, were here yesterday in connection with the purchase of the mill property. It was largely through the instrumentality of Mr. Wolfenden that the Michigan people were attracted here.

RETURN OF PAUL GILMORE.

Coming of Brilliant Young American Actor in Last Season's Success Sets the Theatrical World Agog.

Wilmington theatre-goers are agog over the fact that Paul Gilmore and company will return to the Academy Monday night and will upon that occasion present "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," the same great play that reored such signal success here last season. This engagement will be one of the best theatrical events of the year and is ardently endorsed by the local management. The sale of seats for the performance commences at Plummer's this morning at 7 o'clock.

A play presented in all parts of the world, in all languages; in short a universally successful play, is worthy of serious consideration. That "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," is such a play, is an established fact; its history being its unquestionable witness. In Europe, the success of this play was instantaneous, in America, the same. Truth and human nature, characters that breathe and live, wholesome wit, constant surprises, pure woman(with that inexplicable charm which nothing but gentle femininity does or can possess, a man with masculine attributes for its hero, sentiment which draws tears, wit which compels laughter and situations which thrill), these are the qualities and characteristics of "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," and they are the logical factors of its unprecedented success. Paul Gilmore to-day stands in the position of the exponent of modern, romantic comedy heroes. Handsome, young, a finished artist, magnetic to his finger tips, a scholar and a gentleman, he is without question, the one man fitted for the hero in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," in which part he achieved such a success last season that his manager, Jules Murry, concluded to present him in it again this season, although a successor to "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" for Mr. Gilmore has already been found for next year.

LARGEST SAILING VESSEL.

British Barque Arrives from Four Months Voyage—Markets and Shipping.

The local spirits of turpentine market was steady at 50½c. yesterday. Cotton remained steady at 9¾c, though New York spot was stronger, closing at 10:15 for middling. Receipts yesterday were 3,455 bales against, 4,455 same day last season.

Norwegian steamer "Kingswood" arrived yesterday with a cargo of pyrites for the Navassa Guano Co. The vessel is consigned to Messrs. Heide & Co. She is 1,309 net tons register and is in command of Capt. Olsen. She passed up from Southport at noon yesterday, proceeding up the river, above Wilmington, to the factory.

British barque "Musselcrag," 1,871 tons, Capt. Robinson, arrived at quarantine yesterday from Junin, Chili, with a cargo of nitrate of soda, also for the Virginia Carolina Chemical Co. factories. The barque sailed from Chili on the 25th of last June and had a long voyage ahead of her, coming all the way around Cape Horn, a distance of more than eight thousand miles. The "Musselcrag" is the largest sailing vessel that ever entered this port. She is registered at 1,871 net and 1,985 gross tons. The vessel is of steel and was built at Glasgow, Scotland, in 1896. She is 266.6 feet long, 40 feet wide and 23.7 feet depth of hold. The vessel is consigned to Messrs. Heide & Co.

As the night wears on and the returns begin to come in, the full Western Union bulletins will be announced to the waiting multitude in the club rooms.

GREAT FLOWER SHOW

SUCCESS DESPITE THE RAIN.

Hundreds Witnessed the Exhibition Last Night and Were Pleased—Under Most Worthy Auspices, Show Will Continue To-day.

Although the weather was anything but favorable for a floral exhibit, the chrysanthemum show, under the joint auspices of the Wilmington Lodge of Elks and the Wilmington Piano Club, opened last night at the cozy B. P. O. E. Temple in a blaze of glory. The exhibit was pronounced by all who attended as the prettiest ever seen here. In spite of the inclement weather the show is already a success, though it will continue this evening.

The parlors of the Temple have been transformed into a veritable beauty land, the scheme being a pretty Japanese Garden with a wealth of floral decoration and hundreds of twinkling Japanese lanterns. In the garden the ladies of the Piano Club are serving dainty refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cakes, tea and coffee and other tempting delicacies. Mrs. A. M. Waddell and Mrs. Joseph H. Watters are assisted in this department by Miss Louise Harper, Miss VonGlahn, Mrs. Theodore Runge, Miss Bertha Hanson, Miss Elizabeth Otten, Mrs. Albert Solomon and others, while a most attractive cut flower booth is in charge of Mrs. John H. Rehder, Mrs. W. A. French, Jr., and Mrs. E. Schulken. The booth and garden were well patronized last evening and the patrons were charmed with the delights of the place.

On the second floor, in the lodge room of the Elks, is the Chrysanthemum show proper. There is a magnificent exhibit by Mr. C. F. W. Rehder, of palms, ferns and rare plants; especially of ferns of the maiden hair variety. On the right as one enters the hall is the chrysanthemum exhibit. The back ground is of palms, Southern smilax and Autumn oak leaves. A row of stately palms on handsome pedestals stands out prominently, while at the foot of them are chrysanthemums of unusually large size and beautiful variety.

At the Exalted Ruler's station in the lodge room is a magnificent display of roses, carnations and Lilies of the Valley, the carnations being of the white, pink, red and variegated colors. Among the roses American Beauties, La France, Bride's, Bridesmaid's and Meteors are shown in profusion. To the right of the Exalted Ruler's station and at the base of the memorial tablet, upon which are carved the names of departed members of the lodge, is a handsome wreath of white chrysanthemums, tied with purple chiffon—the colors of the lodge—on an easel to which is attached the placard, "To Our Absent Brothers."

The overhead decoration is especially attractive, consisting of garlands of smilax, studded with white and purple bows. The chandeliers are attractively draped with smilax, while from each are purple and white garlands of crimped paper.

The show is the most elaborate of its kind ever attempted in Wilmington and it is more than worth seeing. There are nearly 500 plants and flowers on the second floor alone, Mr. Will Rehder having used ten wagon loads from his floral gardens, many of the rare specimens never having been taken from the green houses before. The show will continue from 3 to 6 o'clock this afternoon for the especial benefit of ladies and children and from 8 to 11 o'clock again to-night. The proceeds of the show will be used for the piano fund of the Wilmington Piano Club and for the charity fund of the Elks. The admission is only ten cents.

Brunswick Political Situation.

With the election less than a week off, the political situation in Brunswick is clarified but little. There are still three tickets in the field—the Regular Democratic, the Conservative Democratic and the Republican. Last week Mr. Howard C. Curtis, the Regular Democratic nominee for the Legislature, came out in a card declaring his principles on the "paramount issues," which appear to be the Watts' Law, repeal of the act incorporating the town of Myrtle, repeal of the tax on clams in that county and public education. This week's Southport Standard contains cards from both Mr. W. W. Murrell, the Conservative Democratic nominee for the Legislature, and Mr. C. Ed. Taylor, the Republican nominee. Mr. Murrell berates Mr. Curtis for his alleged inconsistency on the liquor question in the campaign, and Mr. Taylor, Republican, contents himself with a declaration for the Watt's Law, increased appropriations for public schools, charitable institutions and pensions, opposition to the no-fence law, repeal of the clam tax act but legislation for protection of the fishing interest. Mr. W. H. Tharp has been placed on the Conservative Democratic ticket to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of R. M. Edwards as surveyor. Mr. Geo. H. Gray withdraws from the race as treasurer on the Conservative ticket.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY FAIR.

Large Crowds in Attendance—Racing Good and Attractions Being Well Patronized—Events for To-day.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

Fayetteville, Nov. 3.—Despite the rain to-day great crowds were here for the Cumberland County Fair. The "pike" was crowded with eager pleasure seekers at every side show and everybody seemed to be having a good time. Special trains this morning from Wilson and over the Aberdeen and Rockfish roads brought large crowds. The Fair german last night in Williams' hall was very pretty and was enjoyed by a large number of young society people.

On the Fair grounds to-day the principal features were the trotting and running races and the tournament of the Fayetteville Gun Club. All the horses in the races were Cumberland stock and great interest was manifested. The running race was won by Mr. W. S. Evans' horse over three others and the trotting race was won by Mr. Dan Culbreth's fine animal. There were 14 participants in the gun club shoot, Mr. L. A. Williamson having won the handsome pump gun offered as a first prize.

To-morrow afternoon the grand fair tournament will take place, beginning at 2 o'clock. The judges are J. F. Harrison, Dr. H. W. Lilly, L. A. Williamson, W. H. Owen and J. C. Williams.

The races to-day will be of unusual interest, prizes of $50, $33½ and $16⅔ being offered in the first event and one half those amounts, respectively, in the second event. A prize of $5 is offered for the best three in five heats of a mule race.

The Delgado Band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion and bonfires in front of the Court House will be a signal for "the faithful" to gather from the four corners of the city. Every Democrat is expected to respond to the rally call as both speakers will have interesting news from "the field."

AN ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following:

But for the vigilance of Deputy Sheriffs Monaghan and Pate, four desperate prisoners confined in the county jail would now be at large.

About 10 o'clock this morning the quick ears of Deputy Sheriff and Jailor Pate heard a sound from the cage floor of the jail which had a metallic ring and, summoning Deputy Monaghan, went up to investigate. They found that all the bolts on the big corridor door of the cage had been broken, and that with very little more effort the prisoners would have been free.

It turned out that there were some plumbers in the jail yesterday and they carelessly left a cold chisel and a monkey wrench behind, and it was with these tools that the prisoners did their very effective work.

WILMINGTON ACADEMY PATRONS CHARMED

READ WHAT THE "STAR" OF OCT. 29, 1903, SAID

PAUL GILMORE AT ACADEMY.

It has been well said of Paul Gilmore that unlike many stars in the theatrical firmament, he does not believe in the "one-man play," but insists upon being surrounded by a supporting company, each of whom shall be an artist of ability himself or herself. Honors for the real star are not so easy under those circumstances, but the unselfish motive attributed to the handsome young actor is that his ambition is for the success of the Paul Gilmore Company rather than of Paul Gilmore himself.

That such are the characteristics of the popular young thespian was abundantly proved last year in the "Tyranny of Tears" and equally so in the big New York and London success, "The Mummy and The Humming Bird," which was seen by a fashionable audience at the Academy of Music here last night. Mr. Gilmore added new lustre to his favoritism already won here.

NEW ACTS FROM ABROAD.

Hungarian, Magyars, La Famille, Lecusson, Mons, Hubert, Martlocks and Others.

The announcement of the great Forepaugh and Sells Brothers United Shows, coming to Wilmington on Tuesday, November 15th, indicate that they have not only secured the very best of home talent, but thoroughly ransacked all foreign fields in search of genuine and original thrills and tickles. From abroad come to us for the first time the Szarvasi Frencz Troupe of Hungarian Magyars, whose dances, acrobatic feats and tribal melodies are described as both intensely thrilling and strangely interesting. The gay capital of France lends its most popular equestrian feature in La Famile Lecusson, whose combined equestrian and park brake bareback and acrobatic feats will doubtless amaze all beholders here as they did there, and which are classed as the only absolutely new equestrian performances seen in any arena for half a century. Another arenic European celebrity who for the first time visits this country is Mons. Hubert, his original equestrian acts including leaping from the ground to a horse's back while holding a sulky on high by its thills and balancing a park cart on his chin, after having performed many novel and difficult juggling acts therein. The four merry Martineks, who have set all Europe laughing from ear to ear, have been added to the whole comic circus of clowns, which feature this great show was [the first to introduce. At the head of all home or foreign acrobatic families stand the Eddys, who will appear in their new and the only aerial stage acrobatic innovation.

KINSTON WANTS DOUBLE TRAINS.

Business Men Coming to See Railroad Officials Here—Union Depot.

Wednesday's issue of the Kinston Daily Free Press says:

The committee recently appointed by our commercial bodies to lay the matter of a double daily train service before th Coast Line officials have secured an appointment to meet the general manager of the road in Wilmington on Friday next. These gentlemen will go to Wilmington with a request backed by a well nigh unanimous public demand. There is undoubtedly much interest manifested in the project. A double daily passenger and freight service would meet with a hearty response from the public, and would no doubt prove decidedly a wise investment on the part of the railroad.

It is to be hoped that the gentlemen composing these committees will take occasion while in Wilmington to sound the Coast Line people upon our union depot. Mr. Howland, of the Howland Improvement Company, has signified his willingness to unite with the Coast Line in providing Kinston a suitable union depot. This, too, is a much needed improvement, and would meet a universal desire of our people. A union depot would add greatly to the convenience of travel at this point.

Rather early to think of Christmas suits, but quite a number of our customers are already leaving their measures and making first selections—an advantage we want all our friends to enjoy. It's marvellous how young and old are taking to the fashionable fabrics we are showing. Then they are all guaranteed perfect fits. Better see our samples early. "At the Sign of the Golden Arm." WATCHMAN, TELL US OF THE NIGHT.

What are the chances for Judge Parker's election is a question that is frequently asked at this juncture, and the interest in the answer will be more intense during the four remaining days of the campaign. Very naturally, when we want a candidate elected, most men's hopes get away with their judgment. We desire and earnestly hope that Judge Parker will be elected, and while we all know that the chances have all been in favor of Roosevelt, with tremendous odds to combat Parker, we have relied on the sense of the American people to turn for safety to the Democratic nominee.

Judge Parker from the start had to make a fight to reunite the Democracy. That has been fairly well accomplished. In fact there are less discordant elements than we had expected. The campaign to restore party harmony has been a splendid success, whatever may be the outcome of the campaign. After harmony came a fight to win the independent vote and win votes from the other party. It looks like the Democratic nominee and his campaign managers have also made a success along that line. The Democrats have made a bold and aggressive fight, and everywhere they have had the Republicans on the defensive. The campaign is winding up with a fight to the finish, and now we want to know what the prospects are for Parker's election.

The New York Herald, which abandoned the Parker cause several days ago, said in its news columns Tuesday: "Alarmed by the indications of the trend toward the Democratic nominees for President and for Governor of New York State, as shown by The Herald's non-partisan postal card poll in New York city, the leaders of the Republican State and county organizations put on double pressure yesterday." The Philadelphia Record remarks that evidently The Herald got discouraged too soon when it intimated that the Democratic cause was doomed. It looks like the situation has improved since the Herald gave up hope a couple of weeks ago, and the fact is that the Herald gave up the fight too soon. Note what is now said in the Washington Post, Independent, which, several days ago, forecasted Roosevelt's election:

"There can be no doubtth at at the present moment the Democrats are curiously elated and the Republicans at least anxious. The circumstance of our inability to account for it does not affect the fact. Whatever the reason may be, Judge Parker and his followers have, within the past few days, taken on an air of greater enthusiasm, while the others, though admitting no relaxation of confidence, are notably responsive to criticism and at times superabundantly voluminous in retort and explanation. Any fling by the Democratic candidate or by Mr. Cleveland extorts from the administration spokesmen a deafening chorus of rejoinder. The magazines teem with Republican polemics, with extravagant adulation of the party candidate, with blighting scorn of the dastard enemy, and with hurlings-back which are not remote from frenzy.

"We frankly admit our inability to account for this. A condition confronts us, but we cannot analyze it. If there were only the usual uproar of the chartered spellbinders and the regular vociferation of the known retainers, we should put it down to mere salaried ecstasy and dismiss the subject from our thoughts. But the situation cannot be appraised so easily. Great men are writing, speaking and exhorting with all the fury one expects of ordinary hired understrappers. The cabinet is depopulated. Our ambassadors and envoys have left foreign capitals in great numbers to mingle with their fellow citizens during the last days of the campaign. The leading lights of the Republican party in every walk of life are shining everywhere and with astonishing intensity. It seems to us there is a vast amount of noise and eagerness, if not of flat hysterical solicitude, considering the security claimed by the Republicans and plainly visible to the impartial looker-on."

The situation in New York is evidently alarming the Republicans. The New York Sun, which occupies the unique position of supporting the Republican nominee for President and opposing the Republican nominee or Governor, charges that Governor Odell is trading off Roosevelt to secure votes for Higgins. "It is known that certain Odell leaders in the Mohawk Valley," says the Sun, "are counselling their followers to throw a vote for Parker if they can in return secure a vote for Higgins. There is no mistake about this. Governor-Chairman Odell was in something of a panic yesterday over the prospects of his State ticket, and he is resorting to any and every measure to secure the election of Higgins."

The news from New York is that Judge Parker's great meeting in New York Monday night has added to Democratic hopefulness, which is the chief feature of the last week of the campaign. The postal card polls of the New York Herald and the Brooklyn Eagle, forecasting a sweeping Democratic victory in New York State, were accepted by the gamesters with sufficient seriousness to cut the betting odds from 5 to 1 to 4 to 1. A good deal more Parker money was offered at the latter figure than was covered, and it is predicted that before the end of the week 2½ or 3 to one will be the prevailing odds.

The personal optimism of Judge Parker has had no small influence in encouraging the Democrats to take a brighter view of the situation. He has iterated and reiterated his confidence in a Democratic victory next Tuesday. It is declared that his determination to make a number of speeches was not reached in desperation, but through a desire to make absolutely sure a victory he regarded as already won. Since Parker spoke to an immense audience of 20,000 at Madison Square Garden, the Democratic leaders have been uplifted with enthusiasm by the trend of political events. So far so good.

How about Indiana? Here is what the Indianapolis Star, Republican, says: "A note of alarm was sounded at Saturday night's Republican rally in Indianapolis with reference to the electoral vote of the State, the member of Congress from this district and the legislative ticket in Marion county. The alarm, it seems, was well founded. There is occasion for solicitude. The result is uncertain."

Utah is now represented as entitled to be classed among the doubtful States. Early in the campaign it was claimed that Roosevelt would carry the State by from 10,000 to 20,000, but development of the fight against Mormon church influence in politics has put a new complexion on the situation. A charge that the Republican National Committee had entered into a deal to secure Mormon votes was promptly denied by Chairman Cortelyou. The effect of this has been beneficial, but the fight between the Republican factions in the State is so bitter that it is believed the national ticket is bound to suffer.

This is the way the news is running all along the line, and it is even hinted that the Republicans must look out for squalls in several Western States. As THE STAR has heretofore said, we are going to wait till the vote is counted before we will concede Parker's defeat.

It doesn't appear that Cortelyou is going to take the stand. A guilty defendant rarely does. The risk is too great.

"A SECRET."

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such, for instance, as the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps for paper-bound volume, or thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The change from maidenhood to womanhood is one that involves the whole body. The strain at this time upon the blood-forming structures may be too great. Disorders of the functions peculiarly feminine are nearly always dependent upon defective nutrition. In all such cases Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just the vegetable tonic for the female system.

"I cannot express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Julius Wehrly, of Cambridge, Dorchester Co., Md. "I took 'Favorite Prescription' and feel that a perfect cure has been effected. I feel like thanking you for the kind and fatherly letters which you wrote."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the first exclusively woman's tonic on the market. It has sold more largely in the past third of a century than any other medicine for women. Do not let the druggist persuade you to try some compound that has not had the test of so many years' success.

A PROBLEM SOLVED.

A Discovery That Will Be of Benefit to Thousands of People.

There is no doubt about the value of Vinol, this new form of cod liver oil, concerning which so much has been said lately. It is just another one of those great developments that is bound to revolutionize a certain branch of science. This time the science is that of saving lives; hence the greater good thrt will be derived from this discovery.

We refer to the discovery made by those two great French chemists, Mourgues and Gautier, of a process by which the medicinal curative elements known to exist in the cod's liver can be separated from the oil so that all the good part of that famous old remedy, cod liver oil, can be recovered for the benefit of the sick, and all the useless oil and grease can be gotten rid of.

Thus they produce a delicious and doubly potent remedy out of a very objectionable one. It has revolutionized the cod liver oil trade, for who wants to take a nauseating, oily dose of cod liver oil or emulsion when the same benefits can now be obtained from Vinol, which is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange?

Vinol is simply cod liver oil in a new form—cod liver oil without oil, paradexical as it may seem—absolutely made from fresh cods' livers, and the greatest flesh and strength creator for young and old known to medicine, and is different from any preparation that can possibly be made by any one else. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— It looks as if the intense silence within its portals is beginning to blister the paint on the White House.—Baltimore Sun.

—— Whatever one's views of the McCue case, one is bound to sympathize with the unfortunate son upon whose testimony the life of the remaining parent depends.—Norfolk Landmark.

—— It is no trifling task to stand up against half a dozen skilled debaters of the President's Cabinet, but Judge Parker is performing it most effectively.—Manchester (N. H.) Union.

—— There are 29 more electoral votes than there were in the last three presidential elections, and seventeen of these have been gained by States that Mr. Cleveland carried in 1892.—Philadelphia Record.

—— We do not forget that war is necessarily bloody and horrible, and we agree that Americans have no right to be oversensitive, for they fought a war forty years ago which was so dreadful as to shock the world—and yet they refused all suggestions of mediation, as they had a right to do. Japan and Russia have the same right now.—Indianapolis News.

—— Democrats of Pennsylvania on the Northern Tier as well as here in Philadelphia can render the party valuable service in detecting and preventing the Republican scheme of colonization of voters in New York. The scheme for sending a gang of Philadelphia repeaters to Baltimore at the same time would prove a dangerous experiment. It would be a good thing if they should cool their heels for a year or so in a Baltimore jail.—Philadelphia Record.

—— Negroes are being urged in several districts to present themselves at the polls and offer to vote. They cannot legally vote without a registration certificate, but in going to the polls they are laying the foundation for contests. Every Democrat should cast his ballot for the congressional candidates. Those who have neglected to qualify should go to the polls, so it may be shown that our laws do not discriminate. It has not been so important in years as it is this to vote for congressmen.—Columbia Record.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, November 3.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of one to five points or rather better than due on the disappointing Liverpool futures market. The influence of this showing, however, was offset to a certain extent by firmness of the English market, while more or less general rains in the belt and steadiness at New Orleans also had an effect on local prices which immediately following the call sold up about even with the final quotations of the previous night. At this level offerings became a little heavier. Private cables from Liverpool were bullish but houses with Liverpool connections had selling orders. In addition to this there was some uncertainty over the showing of the census report and prices gradually slipped off in the absence of a fresh demand until just before midday they were about four to six points lower. The ginner's report proved more bullish than expected, showing only 6,417,894 bales ginned to October 18, when the bulls had been predicting about 7,000,000 bales. Following this report prices shot up about 10 or 12 points from the bottom and after some irregularity still further increased the gains with January going as high as 10c. At the close there was a reaction of only a point or two and the market was finally very steady at a net gain of 5 to 10 points. Sales were estimated at 350,000 bales. receipts of cotton at the ports today 50,352 bales against 52,042 last week and 56,780 last year. FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One—How It Is done in Wilmington.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Wilmington citizen.

J. A. White, electrician for the Coast Line Railroad, at Rocky Mount, residing at 206 North Sixth street, says: "I have had great trouble with my back, right across the loins, and when I sit still for a while I hardly knew how to move and when I did you would think I was seventy-five years old. There were pains all over me and I could not tell where they were to strike me. I used liniments and lots of remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Bellamy's drug store and used them. They helped me in a very short time and seemed almost to oil up my joints; in fact, I have not had the pains since I used them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free. †

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel: There are mutterings over the raise in the price of telephone service in Winston-Salem, and it may develop into a storm of protest. The fight in Greensboro is being studied.

— In the Durham city schools there are now 2,339 pupils, this being a larger number than a year ago and the largest in the history of the city school work. In addition to these there are about eight hundred in the white and colored schools in East and West Durham. The reports from all rural schools show a large attendance.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel says: Though a dry month the leaf sales on the Winston-Salem market in October showed a good increase over the same month last year. With a "season" the new crop will come in rapidly. The average of eight cents a pound made last month is regarded as excellent in view of the fact that the offerings were common.

—Raleigh News and Observer: North Carolina people will contribute more more to the care of orphans than to any other cause. More than five thousand dollars have been sent to the Baptist Orphanage in response to the appeal since the typhoid fever scourge. "Yesterday I had a check of twenty dollars from a Jewess," said Mr. Mr. Archilbald Johnson.

— A meeting in the interests of the proposed new hotel at Nag's Head was held Friday night at Elizabeth City and a large amount of stock subscribed. It is now considered that the movement to have an up-to-date summer restaurant on the coast in near proximity to Washington, Edenton, Hertford and Elizabeth City has been substantially started and that it will be entirely successful.

— Last year, when the personal property of George W. Vanderbilt, aggregating several million dollars, was assessed for taxation in New York city, he "swore off" the tax, truly alleging that he is a resident of North Carolina. He is one of the largest tax-payers in North Carolina, as the following from the Asheville Gazette shows: "The county of Buncombe and the State of North Carolina receives annually from George W. Vanderbilt a sum of money that to the average individual would seem a small-sized fortune. Mr. Vanderbilt's tax this year is something in the neighborhood of $16,000, half of which amount he settled last week."

— At Asheville Tuesday evening about six o'clock, in the lobby of the Hotel Berkley, when Hon. Thomas Settle, of Asheville, and Homer Cathey, an ardent Democrat of Skyland, after talking politics a few moments, engaged in a fisticuff with the result that Settle was knocked into one of the large plate glass windows of the hotel, and then kicked partially down the stairway. There are two sides to the story. One is that the two men were discussing the Democratic and Republican candidates for sheriff, when Cathey made an offensive statement regarding the Republican candidate, and Settle struck him with a walking stick, whereupon Cathey returned the blow with his fist and sent Settle into the glass window. Then he or his brother, who came upon the scene at the time, kicked Settle down the stairs of the hotel leading to the hotel bar. Another story is that Cathey first cursed Settle when the fight started. Settle's hands were cut by the broken glass, as were also Mr. Cathey's.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Mr. R. S. Howland, the lessee of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad, is to be here on the 11th of November, Friday of next week, and with him will come United States Senator Nelson A. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, and several other prominent gentlemen from the North. The party is to go from Raleigh to Newbern and then to Beaufort, the purpose being to inspect various points in Eastern North Carolina and to look at the conditions as pertaining to investments. On the visit of these gentlemen to Raleigh a number of citizens will take part in making their visit pleasant and in pointing out the value of investments in North Carolina. It is expected that the visit to Beaufort will do much to encourage Senator Aldrich, who is chairman of the Senate Committee on Commerce, to take an active part in legislation which which will give it one of the best harbors on the coast.

— Raleigh News and Observer, Nov. 3rd: On yesterday a talented son of North Carolina became Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Arkansas. This was Joseph Morrison Hill, the youngest son of Gen. D. H. Hill, of the Confederate army, and also a brother of Prof. D. H. Hill, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, of Raleigh. Judge Hill was born in Charlotte and lived there until his thirteenth year. When Gen. Hill became President of the University of Arkansas in 1876, Judge Hill accompanied his father to that State and has ever since made it his home. Although only thirty-nine years of age he defeated in the recent primaries the former Chief Justice, Judge Bunn, who is also a North Carolinian, and two other prominent lawyers, getting a clear majority over his three competitors, and leading in his vote the entire State ticket. He is not only a lawyer of ability, but is also a cultured, scholarly man and his adopted State does well to honor so highly a man of his upright character and learning.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store.

The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous.

— Greensboro Telegram, Nov. 2: Mr. Beatty Hodgin, the eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Hodgin, was killed yesterday afternoon while drilling wheat on the farm of his father in the Centre neighborhood. He had gone to the field to drill wheat and as he did not return when the family thought he should, some one went to where he had been working to ascertain the trouble. They found that Mr. Hodgin had been kicked by one of the horses and killed. A singular coincidence in connection with the dreadful occurrence was that the young man remarked only a few days ago how gentle his horses were and how safe he was in handling them.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4.

CONTINUATION OF THE McCUE MURDER TRIAL.

Arguments of Counsel—Court Room Was Crowded With Spectators—The Case May Go to the Jury To-day.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 3.—With the corporation Court room filled to its utmost capacity, with the accused surrounded by a number of his relatives, a young son on his lap and a little daughter by his side, the trial of former Mayor J. Samuel McCue was resumed to-day when the arguments were continued.

Captain Richard S. Ker, who is associated with the prosecution, addressed the jury.

Captain Ker dwelt first upon questions of doubt and the competency of circumstantial evidence. He then passed to the testimony pertaining to the domestic relations existing in the McCue household, giving emphasis to the evidence adduced by the Commonwealth in that respect. He differed with the defence as to the interpretation of the law relative to motive, at the same time contending that a motive had been shown.

Captain Ker concluded at 12:15 P. M., when a recess was taken until 2 P. M., the court first renewing its injunction against any demonstration and threatening severe publishment for any infraction.

J. T. Coleman, of Lynchburg, of counsel for the defence, in the afternoon argued for the accused. Like those who preceded him he spoke with the court room packed, and men stood in the windows on the outside. Mr. Coleman made an impassioned appeal for his client and one of his bursts of eloquence caused the accused to bury his face in his handkerchief and weep. Indeed, the defendant gave way to his emotions a number of times while his counsel was pleading to the jury in his behalf.

A great many of the women who occupied front seats in the gallery brought their lunches with them and remained throughout the noon recess.

At 4 P. M. a recess was taken until 8 P. M., that Mr. Coleman might conclude to-night, the idea of night sessions originating with the jury.

Even greater numbers sought to gain admission to the court room at the night session. Mr. Coleman in vigorous speech closed his argument about 9:20 P. M., when a recess was taken until to-morrow. Only two more addresses before the jury are to be made. Mr. Lee will close for the defence, beginning to-morrow morning, and will be followed by Commonwealth Attorney Gilmer, who will close for the prosecution and make the final argument, when the case will go to the jury.

DAVIS IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Putting Finishing Touches on Campaign in His Own State—Eulogized Judge Parker—Spoke at Many Places.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DAVIS, W. VA., Nov. 3.—Henry G. Davis delivered his thirteenth speech of the day here to-night. Mr. Davis is putting the finishing touches on the borough campaign he has made in his State. He will talk all day to-morrow and make his last speech Saturday night at Bellington.

To-night Mr. Davis declared that one single trust contributed one million dollars to the Republican campaign funds. He did not name the trust. Mr. Davis spent some time to-night in eulogy of Judge Parker. He would make the best president, he said, since the civil war. Of his own labor record, Mr. Davis told his audience in the mining town of Elk Garden that he had never discharged a man because of his affiliation with a labor union and that he had never permitted the use of an injunction in a labor dispute.

KERSER, W. VA., November 3.—In speaking here to-day, Mr. Davis said the trusts were all kept up by the tariff, "although," he said, "as you know, I am not a free trader, I think the tariff on special things that foster the trusts should be reduced, but without fear of contradiction, I will say that every one of the two or three hundred trusts in this country are Republican. The Beef trust, the Standard Oil trust, the Steel trust are all contributing and working for Republican success. J. Pierpont Morgan, who it was said some time ago was favorable to Judge Parker, is now giving his money and giving it freely and doing everything he can for the election of Roosevelt."

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The last of the Census bulletins giving the returns of its agents on cotton ginned for the present year up to Oct. 18th last, was issued at noon to-day. It shows the total number of running bales to be 6,590,137 as against 1,839,627 running bales for last year. Counting the round bales included in these totals as half bales the balance for 1904 is reduced to 6,417,894. The total number of running bales ginned to Oct. 28, 1902, was 5,925,872.

The reports from the various cotton producing States for the present year follows: Alabama, 694,670 bales; Arkansas, 257,776; Florida, 40,642; Georgia, 1,056,679; Indian Territory, 181,316; Kentucky, 284; Louisiana, 392,258; Mississippi, 561,704; Missouri, 10,621; North Carolina, 309,097; Oklahoma, 106,237; South Carolina, 629,857; Tennessee, 79,688; Texas, 2,201,663; Virginia, 5,145. The total number of ginneries in operation was 28,110.

Up to October 18, in 1903, 37.6 per cent. of the total crop had been ginned as compared with 53.5 per cent. in 1902. This report will be followed by four others, showing the quantity of cotton ginned from the growth of 1904 to November 14, to December 15, to January 16 and to the end of the season.

JUDGE PARKER IN CONNECTICUT.

ON THE POLITICAL ISSUES.

Given Rousing Impromptu Welcomes at Many Places on the Route—Principal Speech of the Trip Was Made at Hartford.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 3.—Four enthusiastic audiences greeted Judge Parker to-day on his only visit in the State campaign, and in several other places through which his special train passed he was given rousing impromptu welcomes. The principal speech of the trip was in this city to-night. The other receptions were held in Bridgeport, New Haven and Meridian, where an address was made from the rear end of the train. This speech dealt with the question of trusts and the candidate attempted to refute the charge that the Standard Oil Company is the financial sponsor of the Democratic party, and charged that the company's interests are with the Republican party.

The meeting in this city was one of the greatest of the campaign in this State. Judge Parker was given a warm welcome from the moment he reached the city. All entrances were blocked by the time the candidate was driven to the Opera House and admittance was obtained with the greatest difficulty. Judge Parker held informal receptions after each of his meeting, and shook hands during the day and evening with several thousand people. He remained over night in Hartford, and will start on his return trip to New York to-morrow morning

"The time has not come when we need ships of our own, but they should be built, not at the cost of the government, not from taxes drawn from all the people, but as a result of the enterprise of our people. They should be designed and constructed by the ingenuity of our engineers, operated by our seamen and owned by our people. Every landing place along these limitless coasts of ours ought to be a nursery, however rude, for the sailor. Our products, sent to other countries, should be carried in American bottoms, and that almost infinite demand by our people for the products of other countries should enable us to bring them everything that their material comfort, education and progress makes it necessary or desirable for them to use."

Judge Parker commended international arbitration, but thought our best assurance for peace would be to maintain such an army as was actually needed. He then took up the tariff question, renewing the development of a high protective tariff, which he said compelled us to pay more for things we buy than we otherwise would. He continued:

"If a collector from the steel trust should ask you to contribute a dollar a year for each member of your family, would you do it? You cannot think of any argument that could persuade you to. Yet the celebrated statistician, Edward Atkinson, asserts that the steel interests collect an average of one dollar a year for each person with the aid of the tariff statute.

"Precisely that result is accomplished as to many articles by our present tariff laws. Sewing machines, mowing machines, farm implements of various kinds, as well as a great number of article every day purchased, are made in this country and sold abroad cheaper than they are sold here. Some are sold one-fifth cheaper, others one-quarter and still others one-third, after paying the expense across the ocean. That fifth or quarter or third represents the amount the purchaser is obliged to place in the manufacturer's box over and above the fair value of the thing purchased, as evidenced by the price at which he sells it abroad. He compels you to pay this amount by means of a statute which places the duty so high that foreign competition is cut off."

After pointing out the necessity for the development of our trade, Judge Parker addressed himself to the trust question, saying:

"Our opponents have the effrontery to claim that they alone have shown any desire to oppose the trusts. Their claim is as false as it is flagrant.

"So far from this being the fact, the record shows that time and again the representatives of the Democratic party have begun prosecutions under the so called Sherman act. Attorney General Olney began and Attorney General Harmon continued to the end the first of the successful prosecutions under the anti-trust law. Attorney General Harmon asked for appropriations to enforce that act. He reported to Congress that witnesses against the trusts should be exempted from liability, so that they could not interpose the plea of privilege; but it was not heeded by a Republican Congress. He asked for an appropriation to carry on the work in both a special and general respect, but a Republican Congress would not.

"An indignant clamor, that was not to be denied, at last forced the hands of the Republican party, both in the matter of legislation and of opinion. The statute creating the department of Labor and Commerce was passed and an appropriation of half a million was made, The greater part of the moneys appropriated lie idle in the public treasury, but the legislation served its purpose.

"Born, as it was, of a union between the trusts and the Republican party, the parallel of this legislation in scandalous features does not exist upon our statute books to-day.

"It puts it into the hands of the President, and of the Republican party, the means of continuing its hold upon the reins of the government without limit as to time, through the possession of secrets of trusts which under the terms of the legislation itself he may or may not make public or private, as he directs.

"We know full well how the opportunity for the use of that legislation has been availed of in this campaign. No statue could have been better devised for the successful 'financing' of the present election of the candidate of the Republican party or for its indefinite perpetuation in power.

"In the promotion of our business interests we need a department of commerce and labor. But we do not want a department of commerce and labor whose secretary shall go out from it every four years, after he had filled his brain and his note books with the secrets of all the great corporations and combinations which depend upon the government for business or favors, in order not to serve the people but to raise money or corrupt them. Nor do our people want a department to send its statisticians, at the expense of the government, into the service of a great political committee in order to put forth doctored statistics.

"We want a department of commerce and labor which will furnish our merchants, farmers, manufacturers and workmen with the fullest and latest information, intelligently and honestly obtained, and so fairly prepared that dependence may be placed upon it as a real guide. We want to know what other countries are doing in industries and this is all the more important because we feel sure that in none of them has the head of such a department retired from his work to go out into the business world in order to collect blood money.

"We do not need and ought not to have a modern inquisitor who exploits corporations to collect money for corrupting the franchise, or electing pliant legislators, or capturing the electoral vote of pivotal States.

"The manufacturers and the workingmen of Connecticut want the world for their markets, and that department of the government should be used for their commercial advantage and that of their fellow manufacturers and operatives throughout the country."

An Impromptu Speech.

MERIDEN, CONN., Nov. 3.—The only rear platform address made by Judge Parker was when his train stopped here for five minutes on they way to Hartford. It was an impromptu address in which he flayed the Republican party because of the financial aid that party is alleged to have received from trusts. He charged that every monopoly, including the Standard Oil Company, is doing everything in its power to bring about the election of the Republican ticket. The speech created a sensation—both in the audience that gathered at the depot to greet the candidate and among the members of the judge's party.

The mention of the Standard Oil Company in this connection is the first denial the Democratic candidate has made to the charge that the Standard Oil Company is preparing to assist financially his election.

At Bridgeport.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., November 3.—When Judge Parker's special train pulled into the station here from New York to-day the judge was received with an outburst of applause by the people who thronged the platform.

Mr. Parker was immediately welcomed in a formal way by General Henry A. Bishop, candidate for lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket. After luncheon, Judge Parker was driven with General Bishop to the Third Regiment armory where he delivered an address to an audience which taxed the capacity of the building. When Judge Parker arose the audience cheered for five minutes. Judge Parker said in part:

"During the past few years an entirely new doctrine has been preached. Its logic is that whatever else we have done in the world, whatever human imperfections may still exist, so far as the levy of taxes is concerned we have reached absolute perfection. The phrase "standing pat," used to denote this idea, may not be elegant, but it is at least expressive."

Judge Parker gave historical instances of "standing pat" and blocking the way of progress, and said:

"The whole of modern progress has come largely from the refusal of the world to "stand pat." Each successive generation has recognized the virtues and accepted the labors of its predecessors, but in doing so none has even declined or refused to recognize new demands or to correct old abuses.

"There is no more reason why we should resolve not to reverse our national revenue laws than there would have been at any other periods of history to stop all progress. This is especially true as to abuses which become rooted in our human life.

"It is easy enough for the favorite, who in this case is the predominant party with the government, to resist any suggestion of change. But the farmer, the laborer, the man or woman of fixed income, the student struggling for an education, the poor girl supporting her mother's family—these are entitled to inquire whether this policy of using the law to give favors to the few, while the many are left to nurse the sense of injustice, should become permanently fixed merely because power, or corruption, or a short-sighted economic policy has brought it to us as a heritage."

At New Haven.

A large and eager crowd filled the New Haven station as Judge Parker's train rolled in. There was cheering when the presidential candidate was recognized crossing the platform, accompanied by Judge A. Heaton Robertson, the party candidate for Governor. The party took carriages and were driven slowly through a number of streets to Music Hall, which was well filled before Mr. Parker arrived. The gallery had been reserved for Yale men and applause was unstintedly given by them as Mr. Parker took his seat on the platform. Judge Parker devoted part of his address to the students and then took up "the strenuous life."

He said: "It has become a fashion during recent years to exhort our young men to lead what has been called "the strenuous life." Not content with our universal activity in industry, our work in the conquest of a continent, the conclusion seems to have been reached that somehow we had overlooked something. We have always had an efficient army of brave soldiers, well commanded. It had been so sufficient for our needs that we have been able to resist the onslaught of the savage, to ward off foreign aggression, and to settle our own internal troubles.

"But this does not seem to satisfy. We must be strenuous, not alone in all things which make for good, for safety and for permanence, but we must be strenuous in adventure, for personal glory, and even in looking for a fight. It is, apparently, not enough that we shall be active in every moral and religious movement, in everything that can promote education, the training and the discipline of our youths—those, apparently, do not assure real progress. So we are invited to turn aside from these into those lines of activity and adventure which smack of the crusades and of the time when the moated castle was the only home in which human beings could be fairly said to have a right to live."

Judge Parker said college students had always been strenuous, but they had not become swashbucklers in school or afterward. Judge Parker concluded with a few words addressed to first voters."

MARINES ON GUARD

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 3.—Extra guards of marines have been stationed around the partly constructed $2,000,000 dry dock at the navy yard on account of threats that have been made by Italian laborers who had been discharged by the J. C. Rodgers Construction Company, which has the contract for building the dock, to wreck vengeance by destroying the buildings of the company.

The trouble has been brewing since Saturday night when a number of Italians, who were brought here from New York, were laid off. The discharged men have endeavored to create a strike, and failing in this, made threats to burn down the buildings used by the construction company which adjoin the partly finished dry dock.

JAPS CLOSING IN ON PORT ARTHUR.

Now Occupy Positions Which Place the East Side of the Town at Their Mercy.

THE FORTRESS IS DOOMED.

Long Before the Russian Fleet Arrives in the Pacific the Japanese Flag Is Now Believed Will Wave Over the Wrecked Citadel.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

CHE FOO, Nov. 3, 4:30 A. M.—Port Arthur is doomed.

The correspondent of the Associated Press here has received information, the reliability of which is beyond question, that the Japanese now occupy positions which place the east side of the town at their mercy. The last assault has gained for them positions which insure their ability to enter the main east forts whenever they are ready.

The Japanese calculate that if the Russians do not surrender now they will be capable of prolonging the fighting by making their final stand at Liaoti promontory and Tiger's Tail for a month longer, with no hope of continuing the struggle.

Long before the second Baltic squadron arrives in the Pacific the Japanese flag, it is now believed, will wave over the wrecked citadel. This will end Viceroy Alexieff's dream of an unconquerable city.

The Japanese have not occupied the main forts and the highest points of the East hill, but they occupy in overwhelming numbers positions which will enable them to drive the Russians back whenever they desire. When the Japanese occupy the eastern ridge of the forts they will completely dominate the other Russian forts with their artillery.

Japs' Battleship Destroyed.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—The Associated Press was put in a position to-day to state positively that the dispatches from Che Foo, Port Arthur and Tokio, last June, to the effect that the Japanese battleship Yashima had been sunk by a mine off Dalny, which dispatches were denied by the Japanese authorities, are now officially confirmed. The Japanese government has not notified the foreign governments of the loss of the ship. The number of men who went down with the vessel is not known, but it is believed to have been small. The official details show that the Yashima struck a Russian mine and later attempted to make Dalny harbor, but this proved impossible and she sank in deep water.

The loss of the Yashima has been concealed by the Japanese though the Russian authorities have believed for some time the reports that the battleship had been destroyed were correct. It is important, since it is now disclosed that Japan has only four modern battleships remaining,

The Yashima was one of the finest battleships of the Japanese navy. Her displacement was 12,300 tons, about the size of the American battleship Maine, and she had a speed of 19 knots. The Russian squadron at Port Arthur includes five modern battleships, more or less damaged, and Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's command which is now en route from the Baltic to the Far East, also numbers five battleships. In view of the inferiority of the Japanese in battleships their armored cruiser strength is important, they being greatly superior to the Russian in this respect.

More Forts Captured.

CHE FOO, Nov. 3.—Japanese arriving from Dalny to-day report that the Japanese have captured Rihlun mountain and Sughu mountain, which lies between the railroad and Rihlun mountain. They also report that the Japanese have captured east Keekwan mountain.

Conservative Japanese, realizing the intense desire of the Japanese for good news on the Emperor's birthday, received the above reports with reserve. When the Japanese occupied the Russian trenches on Rihlun mountain it is said that the Russians turned a current of water into the trenches, but that the Japanese held fast. Previous to this Japanese shells exploded two land mines on Rihlun mountain.

A General Engagement.

CHE FOO, Nov. 3.—A censored dispatch from the Associated Press correspondent with the Japanese army does not give any particulars of a general engagement going on at Port Arthur, but it is certain that it occurred and that some forts were captured. Terrific explosions heard here indicate that the Russians have exploded mines and destroyed other properly.

LIVELY TIME EXPECTED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CODY, WYO., Nov. 3.—According to the latest reports, the men who killed the cashier of the First National Bank of Cody have been found near Thermopolis. A telephone message from Basin says that Sheriff Fenton and party are in the Bad Lands near Thermopolis, a long distance from the telephone line. This forenoon Fenton sent a man back to the nearest phone station to report to Basin that he and his party had found the outlaws, and expected to get them soon. The bandits are getting among friends and it is thought that the sheriff's party will have some hard fighting.

"Buffalo Bill" with Indian scouts and cowboys, has taken the trail, and a lively time is anticipated. Colonel Cody and his force are heavily armed and determined to get the robbers.

Gin and Tenement House Burned Near Tarboro Yesterday Afternoon.

[Special Star Telegram.]

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 3.—News has just reached here of a fire which occurred this afternoon at the Manse-Hart place, about seven miles from town. A gin house, containing thirty bales of cotton, is said to have been destroyed and also a tenement house in which two negro children perished. The origin of the fire is unknown here.

A YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED.

Her Dead Body Found in a Vacant Lot in the Suburbs of Cincinnati—No Clue to the Murderer.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—Terribly cut and crushed about the head, the dead body of Alma Steinway, a telephone operator, 18 years old, was found today in a vacant lot near the Spring Grove cemetery at Winton Place, a suburb. While there are large footprints in the trail where the body was found, there is no clue to the supposed slayer.

The girl left the telephone office at Cumminsville last night, and her body was found in the lot near the cemetery this morning her head and face had been horridly crushed with a club. No other injuries were found on the body except the wounds on the head.

To-night Conductor Frank Limle told the police that Alma Steinway got on his car last night at Knowlton corner, accompanied by a man. The pair rode to Winton road and got off. He said the man had frequently ridden with Miss Steinway. Limle said he could identify the man.

There is a striking similarity in the death of Miss Steinway and that of Louise Mueller, whose mutilated body was found a month ago about a half mile from where the body of Miss Steinway was found, and Chief of Detectives Crawford is of the opinion that one man committed both deeds.

Railroad Not Liable.

Yesterday's Raleigh Times: "After being out for twenty-four hours in the consideration of the case of the Fireman's Insurance Company against the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, the jury this morning filed into court and presented its verdict on the issues agreed upon for their consideration to the court and therein declared the railroad company not liable for the burning of the Hamlet ice plant, in July, 1903. Plaintiffs gave notice of an appeal."

New Bank For Southport.

Yesterday's Southport Standard says: "It is now a certainty that within a few weeks a bank will be opened in our city. This fills a long felt want and we predict success, knowing as we do the men who are behind it. The Standard congratulates the city and the county on this enterprise."

Maurice Sayres, of Milwaukee, won the decision last night in a 15-round fight with Jack Lowrey, of New York, at St. Louis. The contest was close.
